

ArtSea Dance 2021 Recap

Thank you for being our 2021 Presenting
Sponsor! Please take a look into the magical weekend we were able to create with your help.

The Stats

- Sold out in 36 hours
- 57 Students Total
- 4 Local Dance Studios represented
- 2 Full Scholarships
- 15 First Time Students

Friday Night Screening

On Friday March 12th, we hosted a Private Movie Screening for members of The Island House featuring a ballet titled A Mother's Rite, choreographed by Jeremy McQueen, Artistic Director of The Black Iris Project.

The screening was followed by a Q &A with ArtSea Director Courtney Spears & Shaune Myah Culmer, local dance educator and Founder of the Bahamas Dance Association.

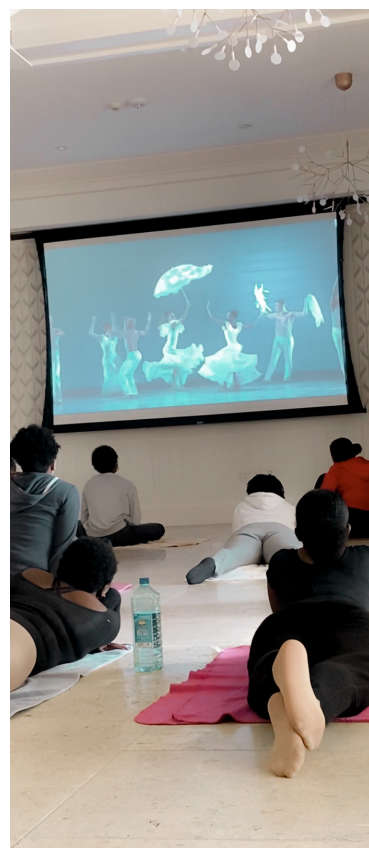

Weekend Workshops

Over the weekend, we welcomed over 50 students to The Island House for class with Courtney Celeste Spears followed by a wellness workshop with local Physical Therapist Cordero Bonamy of Aktiv Body Rehab followed by a viewing of Alvin Ailey Masterpiece Revelations!

L to R: Dr. Blair Woodside, Renee Davies, Myrkeeva Johnson, Courtney Spears, Asa Cary, D'Andrea Cary, Andrew Cary

We had wonderful volunteers on site to help us throughout the day and help all students follow our Covid-19 Safety protocols!

Thank you!

Your support means the world to us, to our students, and to the Bahamian dance community. Our hope is to continue creating opportunities for young Caribbean dancers & build ArtSea to reach even more young artists! The future is bright and we are excited for what's in store. We promise to keep you updated as our workshops continue to take place. See you next year!

Courtney Spears & Asa Cary
ArtSea Dance Co-Founders